Director, Central Intelligence Agency
New War Department Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

On behalf of the staff and classes of the Naval War College I desire to thank you for your very fine lecture delivered 7 September 1948 on the subject, "Coordination of Federal Intelligence Agencies and the C.I.A." Coming as it did on the last day of the course in intelligence, it served most effectively to clarify and coordinate the entire intelligence course.

Your time and effort in making this valuable presentation are deeply appreciated. It is hoped that it will be possible to schedule a similar lecture by you for the benefit of next year's classes.

Sincerely yours,

/s/

ALLAN E. SMITH
Rear Admiral, U.S.N.
President, Naval War College, Acting
